

Up to New York Fans to Go Out to Polo Grounds To-Day and Root for Giants as the Chicago Fans Do for White Sox at Comiskey Park.

Copyright, 1917, by The Evening World.

THE afternoon the Giants will defend the last trench against the White Sox. The barrage from the Chicago bleachers will be making the Giants' task a little easier. Some fire those Chicago fans will over! But they hadn't had a championship contender for so long that they had a lot of ammunition saved up.

The Giants feel that they should win to-day's game. If they do the series will be tied up and the deciding game will have to be played at the Polo Grounds.

This is the time for every loyal fan to get out and yell. Do you know what Chicago papers are saying about New York fans? Give this the once over.

(Chicago Herald, Oct. 11). "The total of 27,746 fans who saw the game (in New York) came as a shock to both the management and the players. Scissors are to be blamed to a certain extent, but the spectators can hardly be held responsible for the void in the bleachers."

THE GOTHAM FANS ARE THE GREATEST QUITTERS IN THE WORLD HAS BEEN KNOWN FOR A LONG TIME, but it was not believed they would say it off so suddenly after the victory on Wednesday. They may come back in the next game here, but it is doubtful. It is a cinch that there will be less than there were to-day should the Giants lose the fifth game in Chicago. It was calculated by those who should know that there were more spectators from outside Greater New York than there were natives. Chicago fans, or those who have a leaning toward the Sox, ex-patriated and others, made up several thousand."

YEAH! Some roasts! Mr. M. P. Chambers, who mailed me the above clipping, wrote: "It is so long since the Windy City boys had any kind of a team, either American or National, that it seems to have been a relief to hear they never knew how good our Giants was until they let him come to the big town. Now they 'Boo' him every time he comes to bat or makes a play, showing what wonderful sportsmen they are."

It is up to the fans to show that they will back a good team. As brother Baer would say: "Lil pep!" To-day's the day to make enough noise to show Chicago that the SECOND town on our map is still SECOND.

A LETTER received from one of the training camps says: "Of all military athletics, boxing takes the lead in popularity with both officers and men. The man who can box is the one who comes expert quickest with the bayonet. That is why boxing is receiving more encouragement from army officers than any other exercise. The Canadian Army has made boxing part of its drills, and it will form part of the drills in the American Army also. Gen. Pershing in a telegram to the War Department, which has been sent to all commanders, urges the necessity of athletics. He calls for rigid training and drilling and says that the two all-important requirements of the American soldier are that he be an athlete and an expert marksman."

BOB MALLISTER writes from San Francisco: "I have boxed once since arriving home. My opponent was Jack Dempsey, who is now under the management of Jack Kearns. He did not have a lot of trouble in taking the decision from me, being a big, strong fellow with considerable of a punch. He has since defeated Gunboat Smith. I weighed 155½ pounds against Dempsey. "This Jack Dempsey is regarded on the coast as a coming star in the heavyweight class. He is a youngster, a good boxer and a hard hitter, and he has been several good men. Willie Ritchie wrote me that Dempsey was knocked down by Smith in the beginning of their four-round bout, but got up and gave the Gunner a hard beating through the rest of the fight. If Dempsey can beat the Gunner he certainly can whip a lot of prosperous heavies in this corner of the woods. If he comes East he might start with Moran."

BILL BRENNAN has a kick. He has been matched with Jim Coffey three times this year, and something always happens to Coffey at the moment, causing the match to be cancelled. Brennan says he doesn't like to be skeptical, but he thinks Coffey's trouble is more in his heart than in his hands.

In one of the most stubbornly contested matches ever seen in the East, A. F. Walker Jr. of Richmond County, the Staten Island champion, yesterday defeated A. F. Kammer, Fox Hill, by 1 up after thirty-six holes of play for the Staten Island golf championship at the Richmond County Club house.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 15.—James Barnes, the professional of the Whitemarsh Valley Country Club, and Cameron Burton, the amateur champion of Philadelphia, won a desperately contested exhibition match from Howard Lane, the rising young "pro" of the Philadelphia Cricket Club, and Norman Maxwell, the youthful Arnold-mink star, on the Whitemarsh course. The battle went to 72 holes and was about to be stopped by darkness, so evenly were they matched, when lightning ran down along putt from the edge of the green for a "birdie" on the sixth extra hole and there was the hole and the match.

The complete devastation by fire of the club house of the Lakeland Golf Club on Saturday did not interfere yesterday with the continuation of play in the club championship. The Handicap Committee, consisting of W. C. Morris, H. M. Popham and Robert H. White, decided to continue the event as originally scheduled. The members yesterday found accommodations in the stone building used as a warehouse by Charles W. Singleton, the club professional, and a staff of assistants. This arrangement will continue at least temporarily, and the professional will attend to his work in the clubhouse. A meeting of the Board of Directors will be held to-morrow night to provide temporary arrangements until a new club house can be erected.

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 15.—Announcement is made in the Yale Daily News that Yale graduates throughout the country are being canvassed as to their opinion on the advisability of forming a Yale Golf Association. It is proposed to hold two tournaments yearly, the first one the latter part of this month.

H. W. Covington annexed the championship title of the Hawthorn Country Club when he defeated E. Geyer in the final play for the honor by a score of 3 up and 2 to play.

E. F. Oates will be a finalist in the championship of the Flushing Country Club, having defeated A. S. Chaffield in the semi-final by 2 up.

Dwight Rockwell won the championship of the Great Neck Golf Club when he defeated R. E. Edwards in the thirty-six hole final by 3 and 6.

DETROIT, Oct. 15.—Charles Evans, Jr. of Chicago was on the losing end of a golf match played for the benefit of the Red Cross. Paired with Harry Vaughn of Detroit, he was beaten by Wilbur Oakes and Jimmy Standish of Detroit 3 up and 4 to play in a thirty-six hole match.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 15.—John T. (Chief) Meyers was granted his unconditional release by the Boston National League Club to which he came last August when the team was sorely pressed for a backstop. Meyers, before that had been unconditionally released by the Brooklyn club. He was with the Giants for a number of years.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 15.—Joe Wright, coach of the Penn. crew, with eight other promising rowers, will leave for the United States of America for his variety eight, has inaugurated a new plan for stimulating interest in fall training at the university. Eight veterans from last year's varsity and junior varsity boats have returned to college, and these have been distributed as strokes and coxes of the crews made up of green material. On Nov. 1 and 2 boats will be held on the river and the two crews capturing first place in their respective boats will be matched for the championship of the university on Nov. 4. To each man in the boat which captures the race cups will be given.

The dates for the fall championships of the Amateur Athletic Union have been announced by Frederick W. Rubien. The national ten-mile run and seven-mile walk championships will be conducted by the Morningside Athletic Club at the City College grounds, New York, after the national junior cross-country championship will be held at the City College grounds, New York, on Nov. 10, and the national senior cross-country championship will be held at the Franklin course in Boston on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 24.

James Boyd of the New York Chapter of the American Lawn Tennis Association has notified the officials of the National Association to have the men who have already entered report immediately at Allentown, Pa., at the training camp headquarters for the United States Army Ambulance Service.

"BUGS" BAER DECLARES "The Chicago Fans Are One Set of Jeers in the Lead"

By Arthur ("Bugs") Baer.

THE sixth episode of the Boo Boo series will be screened at the Polo Grounds this afternoon. The Chicago fans are one set of jeers in the lead, as they have booed the Giants three times, while the New York Chapter of the Amalgamated Boo Boos has only booed the Chicago twice. However, the local Boo Boos will hold their convention to-day and hope to see up the booing tournament. The New York boosers can boo some when they have their boosers on. And they will have 'em on to-day.

Henrie Zim is Grand Perpetual Absorber of the Chicago Boo Boos. Henrie was elected a few seasons ago and can't resign. And the Chicago Boo Boos refuse to honorize their boos. In spite of the high cost of living, they give Henrie fourteen boos to the dozen. Booing is the only article of commerce that isn't dearer because of the war. Yea bo!

If you hear a rattle of boos in Chicago you know they are paging Zim. But now that the Giants have escaped to New York, the Illinois Boo Boos will have to boo McGraw's students by mail. Six patriotic Chicago millionaires have leased a long distance telephone wire so they can boo while to-day's game is going on. Capt. Herzog received a fifty word night letter this morning from the Western Boo Boos which read—

Boo boo boo boo boo boo boo boo boo boo
Boo boo boo boo boo boo boo boo boo boo
Boo boo boo boo boo boo boo boo boo boo
Boo boo boo boo boo boo boo boo boo boo

Yours boofully, CHICAGO BOO BOOS.

Fifty boos, count 'em, fifty. The only consolation that the Giants possess is that the country will soon go dry and the Chicago fans will have to cut out their boos.

CHICAGO (American League).
